

Organised by

6TH INTERNATIONAL ECOSUMMIT
BUILDING A SUSTAINABLE AND DESIRABLE FUTURE
ADAPTING TO A CHANGING LAND AND SEA-SCAPE

JOIN US AT

 ecoSummit 2023

13 – 17 June, 2023
Gold Coast, Australia

View the inspiring program, which includes time to network with speakers and future collaborators, and register now!

TOPICS

Coastal Systems

- Coastal conservation
- Coastal development and engineering
- Coastal marine habitats
- Rivers, catchments and wetlands

Ecology and Biodiversity

- Biodiversity and biological conservation
- Biological invasions
- Disturbance ecology
- Ecological complexity
- Ecological indicators
- Ecological modeling
- Ecosystem creation and restoration
- Ecosystem health
- Ecotoxicology
- Scaling from genomes to ecosystems

Marine Ecosystems/Aquatic Environments

- Coral reef stressors
- Deep-sea as new frontier
- Fisheries and aquacultures
- Marine ecology
- Oceanography
- Sea level rise and ocean warming

Policies and Governance/Science and Policy

- Climate adaptation and mitigation
- Climate change and carbon neutrality
- Eco-health and public health (diseases)
- Environmental policies and frameworks
- Fragile ecosystems and hotspot management
- Pacific Island Resilience
- Sustainability and resilience

Socio-economics

- Aboriginal rights and land use
- Anthropogenic pressure
- Citizen Science and local actors (NGOs)
- Ecological economics
- Ecosystem services
- Ecotourism
- Innovative technology for ecological sustainability
- Integrating socio-economics and ecology

Co-Chairs

Jan-Olaf Meyneke,
Griffith University, Australia

Robert Costanza,
University College London, UK

B. Larry Li,
University of California,
Riverside, USA

THERE IS STILL TIME TO JOIN THE PROGRAM:
LATE POSTER ABSTRACTS
WILL BE CONSIDERED.

FOR FULL
DETAILS VISIT:

www.ecosummitcongress.com